

HUMAN FLAG MEMBERS TO GATHER AT SCHOOLS

Building in Every Section Designated for Giving Out Costumes for July 4 Fete.

School buildings in every section of the city were designated today as the assembling points for the 5,000 children and young women who are to form the human flag at the Monument lot Friday morning, when the medals of honor are presented to the District's heroes.

Each child who intends to take part in the flag were directed today to look at the list of schools and then report at 9 o'clock Friday morning to the one nearest her home. All must wear white dresses. At the school they will be given the necessary costume to wear in the flag.

The women who have volunteered to organize the children were urged today to report some time tomorrow at the old Central High School and get final instructions.

The schools in which the children will assemble and the women who will be there to take charge of them, follow:

Mrs. A. L. Newmyer, Johnson-Powell School; Mrs. C. Mullens, Emory; Mrs. G. A. Hutchinson, Wallach School; Mrs. H. N. Stull, Peabody School; Mrs. E. Thompson, Jefferson; Mrs. M. Woods, Bryant; Mrs. Smith, Carbery; Mrs. Ernest H. Daniel, Cook; Mrs. Arthur Blakeslee, West; Mrs. A. V. Foxworth, Old Central High; Mrs. J. A. Hunter, New Central High; Mrs. Joseph N. Saunders, Edwards; Mrs. H. E. Auld, Jackson; Mrs. E. A. Hodges, Monroe; Mrs. R. B. Sanders, Wilson Normal; and Mrs. Wisewell, Grant.

Organized Labor Votes

Not to Parade as Body in July 4 Celebration

Organized labor will not parade as a body in the Fourth of July celebration, according to a decision reached at a meeting of Central Labor Union last night in Musician's Hall.

The cost of preparing a float, it was pointed out, might reach too far in excess of the resources of the treasury, and officers declared that it was their opinion that the funds be turned to the actual use of the labor movement, although full moral support will be given to the parade.

The American Federation of Labor had refused to vote funds for the celebration, and this was given as one of the principal reasons for the inability of the local central body to participate, since it was stated, support of the national body was needed in the preparation of floats and displays.

Central Labor Union also announced its acceptance of an invitation to attend the mass meeting in Alexandria tonight in behalf of striking telegraphers. Delegates to the central body are expected to put in an appearance in considerable numbers.

NOTE ENLIGHTENS

POLAND ON TREATY

(Continued from First Page.)

censors of the socialist representatives tomorrow.

Irish Appeal to Clemenceau.

Irish-American delegates here in the interest of the Irish independence movement, sent a new note to Premier Clemenceau today in which they charged the British with bombarding Irish towns from airplanes, "wantonly murdering women and children." They said also the British are issuing frequent orders of banishment.

They asked the appointment of a special investigation commission.

U. S.-Polish Treaty Published.

The treaty which the entente powers and the United States signed with Poland was made public today.

Under it Poland agrees to protect the minorities against discrimination; assumes payment of such share of the Russian debt as should be assigned to her by the interallied commission, and agrees to support important international, postal, railway, telegraphic and miscellaneous conventions and other undertakings incidental to the establishment of a national standing.

Turks Going Home.

The Turkish delegation which visited France for the purpose of laying before the peace conference a request that Turkey be territorial integrity be preserved intact will leave for home Thursday.

Meanwhile the members of the delegation will be permitted to visit Paris to make purchases.

Japanese Deny Intriguing.

The Japanese peace delegation today issued a categorical denial of a statement appearing in a newspaper printed in English in Paris to the effect that Japan and Germany had arranged a secret alliance, aimed eventually to include Russia, and that only the overthrow of the Hohenzollerns and the arrival of the armistice prevented the signature.

The delegation says that the story was of German origin, revamped for the moment of the signing of peace to discredit Japan and poison the public mind against her.

New Council's Plans.

The new council of four, consisting of Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister; Robert Lansing, American secretary of state; Arthur J. Balfour, the British foreign secretary; and Tommaso Tittoni, the Italian foreign minister, will meet tomorrow afternoon to outline the method of procedure of the peace conference, which is likely to undergo many changes.

Paris Still Jubilant.

Official and popular rejoicings over the conclusion of peace continued tonight, with civilians and soldiers dancing in the streets and a grand reception at the city hall, which was attended by President and Mme. Poincaré, a number of French generals, public men and allied ambassadors. The city hall was brilliantly illuminated, as is customary on July 14 (Bastille day), and the square in front of it was black with people long before the president arrived.

After the reception four torchlight parades, led by Republican Guards and bands, started from the city hall, followed by immense crowds. Small musical organizations which were pressed into service furnished music for impromptu outdoor balls in different quarters of the city, which were largely attended by American soldiers.

Ovation to Lloyd George.

LONDON, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George received a rousing ovation when he appeared in the house of commons today. The premier had been cheered by crowds on his way from Downing street to the house, but the reception from his fellow members in the house eclipsed the cheers he had received elsewhere since his return from Paris.

The Australian troops billeted in England during the war appear to have taken a great fancy to the English girls, judging from the number of marriages that have taken place. It is estimated that fully 12,000 wives and children of Australian soldiers are to be sent home with their husbands.

THE WEATHER.

The District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, fair tonight and tomorrow; slowly rising temperature; gentle variable winds.

West Virginia, fair tonight and tomorrow; slowly rising temperature.

Records for Twenty-Four Hours.

The following were the readings of the thermometer and barometer at the weather bureau for the twenty-four hours beginning at 2 p.m. yesterday:

Thermometer—Yesterday, 4 a.m., 15; 8 a.m., 22; 12 midnight, 61; Today, 4 a.m., 57; 8 a.m., 62; Maximum, 76, at 2:30 p.m. yesterday; minimum, 56, at 6 a.m. today.

Temperature same date last year—Maximum, 71; minimum, 66.

Barometer—Yesterday, 4 p.m., 30.33; 8 p.m., 30.21; 12 midnight, 30.30; today, 4 a.m., 30.27; 8 a.m., 30.27.

Condition of the Water.

Temperature and condition of water at 8 a.m.—Great Falls—Temperature, 72; condition, 95. Dalecarlia reservoir—Temperature, 72; condition at north connection, 75; condition at south connection, 76. Georgetown distributing reservoir—Temperature, 75; condition at influent gatehouse, 45; condition at effluent gatehouse, 49.

Tide Tables.

(Compiled by United States coast and geodetic survey.)

Today—Low tide, 5:56 a.m. and 6:36 p.m.; high tide, 11:47 a.m.

Tomorrow—Low tide, 6:49 a.m. and 7:15 p.m.; high tide, 12:17 a.m. and 12:36 p.m.

The Sun and Moon.

Today—Sun rose, 5:45 a.m.; sun sets, 8:33 p.m.

Tomorrow—Sun rises, 5:45 a.m.; sun sets, 8:38 p.m.

Moon rises, 9:59 a.m.; sets, 11:04 p.m.

Automobile lamps to be lighted one-half hour after sunset.

Up-River Waters.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

HARPER'S FERRY, W. Va., July 1.—The Potomac and Shenandoah rivers both were muddy this morning.

Weather in Various Cities.

Station.	Temperature.	Wind.	Clouds.	State of weather.
Albany, Tex.	50.02	88	30	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.22	84	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.24	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.26	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.28	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.30	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.32	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.34	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.36	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.38	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.40	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.42	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.44	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.46	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.48	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.50	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.52	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.54	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.56	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.58	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.60	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.62	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.64	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.66	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.68	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.70	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.72	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.74	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.76	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.78	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.80	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.82	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.84	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.86	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.88	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.90	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.92	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.94	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.96	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	30.98	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.00	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.02	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.04	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.06	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.08	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.10	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.12	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.14	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.16	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.18	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.20	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.22	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.24	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.26	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.28	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.30	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.32	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.34	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.36	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.38	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.40	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.42	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.44	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.46	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.48	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.50	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.52	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.54	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.56	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.58	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.60	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.62	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.64	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.66	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.68	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.70	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.72	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.74	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.76	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.78	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.80	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.82	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.84	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.86	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.88	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.90	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.92	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.94	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.96	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	31.98	80	58	Clear
Albany, N.Y.	32.00	80	58	Clear

SEES IN SARDINIA ISLAND CHANCE FOR U. S. TRADE

Would Gladly Exchange the Excess Native Products for American Products.

ROME, June 29 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Every attraction for the American trader—market, sufficient domestic resources to warrant the extension of credit and a sympathetic clientele—is to be found in Sardinia, according to Dr. Alfred P. Dennis, United States commercial attaché, after his recent exhaustive study of the economic situation in the larger insular possession of Italy.

"The Italian mainland, just at present," said Dr. Dennis for the Associated Press, "has very little that she can exchange with us. America wants her cheese and olive oil, but the supply of both these commodities is below the margin of home consumption.

The situation is much better in Sardinia. The island produces cork, olive oil, tomato paste, wool, sheep skins, almonds, canned tuna fish and pecorino cheese greatly in excess of domestic requirements. These native products she would gladly exchange for American coal, shoes, agricultural implements, cheap soap, cutlery and kitchen utensils. Here lies the coincidence of natural supply and demand which furnish the essential elements for carrying out a true program of barter.

An American steamship service offering direct trade between New York and Sardinian ports would be a novelty, but in my opinion would prove a profitable venture. Such an enterprise, of course, would postulate the establishment of trade agencies and banking facilities in Sardinia.

"I found the people of the island to be the simple unspoiled folk and a perfect delight in establishing friendships."

WILL TALK AGAINST LEAGUE.

Five speaking engagements in New England cities have been made for Senator Johnson of California by the League for the Preservation of American Independence. The California senator will open his series of addresses in opposition to the league of nations at Providence next Monday, and will speak thereafter in Boston, Portland, Me., Manchester, N.H., and Burlington, Vt., on successive days.

George Wharton Pepper will appear with him at Boston. It also was announced that itineraries for Senator Reed of Missouri and for Albert J. Beveridge, former senator from Indiana, to follow in opposing the league covenant, were being prepared.

The missing clauses in the Austrian treaty probably will be delivered to the Austrian delegation before the end of the week, but it seems unlikely that the treaty can be signed before July 31, at the earliest.

Official and popular rejoicings over the conclusion of peace continued tonight, with civilians and soldiers dancing in the streets and a grand reception at the city hall, which was attended by President and Mme. Poincaré, a number of French generals, public men and allied ambassadors. The city hall was brilliantly illuminated, as is customary on July 14 (Bastille day), and the square in front of it was black with people long before the president arrived.

After the reception four torchlight parades, led by Republican Guards and bands, started from the city hall, followed by immense crowds. Small musical organizations which were pressed into service furnished music for impromptu outdoor balls in different quarters of the city, which were largely attended by American soldiers.

Ovation to Lloyd George.

LONDON, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George received a rousing ovation when he appeared in the house of commons today. The premier had been cheered by crowds on his way from Downing street to the house, but the reception from his fellow members in the house eclipsed the cheers he had received elsewhere since his return from Paris.

The Australian troops billeted in England during the war appear to have taken a great fancy to the English girls, judging from the number of marriages that have taken place. It is estimated that fully 12,000 wives and children of Australian soldiers are to be sent home with their husbands.

The situation is much better in Sardinia. The island produces cork, olive oil, tomato paste, wool, sheep skins, almonds, canned tuna fish and pecorino cheese greatly in excess of domestic requirements. These native products she would gladly exchange for American coal, shoes, agricultural implements, cheap soap, cutlery and kitchen utensils. Here lies the coincidence of natural supply and demand which furnish the essential elements for carrying out a true program of barter.

An American steamship service offering direct trade between New York and Sardinian ports would be a novelty, but in my opinion would prove a profitable venture. Such an enterprise, of course, would postulate the establishment of trade agencies and banking facilities in Sardinia.

"I found the people of the island to be the simple unspoiled folk and a perfect delight in establishing friendships."

The missing clauses in the Austrian treaty probably will be delivered to the Austrian delegation before the end of the week, but it seems unlikely that the treaty can be signed before July 31, at the earliest.

Official and popular rejoicings over the conclusion of peace continued tonight, with civilians and soldiers dancing in the streets and a grand reception at the city hall, which was attended by President and Mme. Poincaré, a number of French generals, public men and allied ambassadors. The city hall was brilliantly illuminated, as is customary on July 14 (Bastille day), and the square in front of it was black with people long before the president arrived.

After the reception four torchlight parades, led by Republican Guards and bands, started from the city hall, followed by immense crowds. Small musical organizations which were pressed into service furnished music for impromptu outdoor balls in different quarters of the city, which were largely attended by American soldiers.

Ovation to Lloyd George.

LONDON, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George received a rousing ovation when he appeared in the house of commons today. The premier had been cheered by crowds on his way from Downing street to the house, but the reception from his fellow members in the house eclipsed the cheers he had received elsewhere since his return from Paris.

The Australian troops billeted in England during the war appear to have taken a great fancy to the English girls, judging from the number of marriages that have taken place. It is estimated that fully 12,000 wives and children of Australian soldiers are to be sent home with their husbands.

The situation is much better in Sardinia. The island produces cork, olive oil, tomato paste, wool, sheep skins, almonds, canned tuna fish and pecorino cheese greatly in excess of domestic requirements. These native products she would gladly exchange for American coal, shoes, agricultural implements, cheap soap, cutlery and kitchen utensils. Here lies the coincidence of natural supply and demand which furnish the essential elements for carrying out a true program of barter.

An American steamship service offering direct trade between New York and Sardinian ports would be a novelty, but in my opinion would prove a profitable venture. Such an enterprise, of course, would postulate the establishment of trade agencies and banking facilities in Sardinia.

"I found the people of the island to be the simple unspoiled folk and a perfect delight in establishing friendships."

The missing clauses in the Austrian treaty probably will be delivered to the Austrian delegation before the end of the week, but it seems unlikely that the treaty can be signed before July 31, at the earliest.

Official and popular rejoicings over the conclusion of peace continued tonight, with civilians and soldiers dancing in the streets and a grand reception at the city hall, which was attended by President and Mme. Poincaré, a number of French generals, public men and allied ambassadors. The city hall was brilliantly illuminated, as is customary on July 14 (Bastille day), and the square in front of it was black with people long before the president arrived.

After the reception four torchlight parades, led by Republican Guards and bands, started from the city hall, followed by immense crowds. Small musical organizations which were pressed into service furnished music for impromptu outdoor balls in different quarters of the city, which were largely attended by American soldiers.

Ovation to Lloyd George.

LONDON, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George received a rousing ovation when he appeared in the house of commons today. The premier had been cheered by crowds on his way from Downing street to the house, but the reception from his fellow members in the house eclipsed the cheers he had received elsewhere since his return from Paris.

The Australian troops billeted in England during the war appear to have taken a great fancy to the English girls, judging from the number of marriages that have taken place. It is estimated that fully 12,000 wives and children of Australian soldiers are to be sent home with their husbands.

The situation is much better in Sardinia. The island produces cork, olive oil, tomato paste, wool, sheep skins, almonds, canned tuna fish and pecorino cheese greatly in excess of domestic requirements. These native products she would gladly exchange for American coal, shoes, agricultural implements, cheap soap, cutlery and kitchen utensils. Here lies the coincidence of natural supply and demand which furnish the essential elements for carrying out a true program of barter.

An American steamship service offering direct trade between New York and Sardinian ports would be a novelty, but in my opinion would prove a profitable venture. Such an enterprise, of course, would postulate the establishment of trade agencies and banking facilities in Sardinia.

"I found the people of the island to be the simple unspoiled folk and a perfect delight in establishing friendships."

The missing clauses in the Austrian treaty probably will be delivered to the Austrian delegation before the end of the week, but it seems unlikely that the treaty can be signed before July 31, at the earliest.

Official and popular rejoicings over the conclusion of peace continued tonight, with civilians and soldiers dancing in the streets and a grand reception at the city hall, which was attended by President and Mme. Poincaré, a number of French generals, public men and allied ambassadors. The city hall was brilliantly illuminated, as is customary on July 14 (Bastille day), and the square in front of it was black with people long before the president arrived.

After the reception four torchlight parades, led by Republican Guards and bands, started from the city hall, followed by immense crowds. Small musical organizations which were pressed into service furnished music for impromptu outdoor balls in different quarters of the city, which were largely attended by American soldiers.

Ovation to Lloyd George.

LONDON, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George received a rousing ovation when he appeared in the house of commons today. The premier had been cheered by crowds on his way from Downing street to the house, but the reception from his fellow members in the house eclipsed the cheers he had received elsewhere since his return from Paris.

The Australian troops billeted in England during the war appear to have taken a great fancy to the English girls, judging from the number of marriages that have taken place. It is estimated that fully 12,000 wives and children of Australian soldiers are to be sent home with their husbands.

Wednesday Store News of Lansburgh & Bro.

Editorial

A young woman was trying to make a selection from half a dozen different pairs of shoes she had spread out on the counter.

The longer she looked at them the more confused she became as to which pair she did not want.

Then the salesgirl suggested that she let her put away the ones she did not want.

This was done and both seller and buyer were surprised to find that there were only two pairs that were really desirable candidates.

It was easy to choose between the two.

Some time when you can't make up your mind what you want just try this "elimination method." You will be saved a lot of time and worry if you do. It makes choosing easy.

Automobile lamps to be lighted one-half hour after sunset.

Up-River Waters.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

HARPER'S FERRY, W. Va., July 1.—The Potomac and Shenandoah rivers both were muddy this morning.